

I live in a small rural town in NE Colorado and K-LOVE is the only radio station of its kind in our area. I know many who listen to this station also. It is always positive and encouraging; something we need to hear today. I truly believe this service is greatly beneficial in my community and world wide.